IFAP EXTRA

Exciting New Partnership Announcement

Following 12 months of negotiations, IFAP is delighted to announce a new alliance with Workplace Safety Australia which will provide an exciting new range of products for Members and clients.

The agreement signed recently between IFAP and Workplace Safety Australia confirms the appointment of IFAP as the WA and NT distributors for Workplace Safety Australia products and services.

This is a win win opportunity for the Members and clients of IFAP. Workplace Safety Australia is a leading national provider of OHS/IR resources and updates to over 2000 companies on the east coast of Australia.

New products and services that are included in the agreement and will be available soon from IFAP are:

- The National Handbook on OHS Practice (a publication that every workplace should have to use as a reference guide);
- Access to a weekly IR/Safety Alerts email service;
- Access to an advisory service;
- Access to national content material/Policies, Procedures, Fact Sheets etc by way of the Workplace Safety Australia website; and
- Access to an on-line Interactive Audit Tool and various OHS software products.

Stay tuned for more information on these products and services!

International IASST Safety Seminar Coming to Perth

The International Association for Safety and Survival Training (IASST) holds an annual International Safety Seminar in a different country every year. This year IFAP will host the event in Perth on November 3 at AQWA Function Centre.

IFAP's Operations Manager, Centre for the Management of Major Hazards, Mike Gillespie, is the Australian Representative for IASST. IASST consists of national representatives and members from 39 countries who meet biannually to exchange information on matters relating to safety in the maritime environment and promote continuous improvement in safety and survival training internationally.

For more information on IASST visit www.iasst.com.

Call for Papers

IFAP is seeking expressions of interest from anyone wishing to present at the International IASST Safety Seminar. Anyone interested should contact Arianne George at ageorge@ifap.asn.au or on 08 9430 6611.

Safe Way Awards Now Closing!

Reward your employees for safe work practices by entering your organisation or work group into the 2008 IFAP/CGU Safe Way Awards.

Sponsored by CGU, these awards are designed to motivate people in the workplace to maintain safe work practices and recognise the implementation and continuous improvement of safety management systems within an organisation. Last year saw a record number of entries with winners of the Gold Safe Way Achiever Awards attending the SKILLED Gala Dinner for presentation of their awards. A highlight of this sell out event was the presentation of the first ever Platinum Safe Way Achiever Award to SKILLED.

If you haven't sent your entry in or wish to enter for the first time, please contact Maree Zaccaria at IFAP on 08 9431 6285 to register.

Closing date for entries extended to Friday 14 March!

Handouts Available

IFAP's first international presentation, "Death at Work - Who Pays?", was held on 21 February to a sell out crowd.

UK Manslaughter Specialist and Barrister, Gerard Forlin, provided an entertaining and informative presentation to over 100 attendees at the afternoon seminar conducted by IFAP in conjunction with Deacons law firm. Mr Forlin provided handout materials which included copies of several of his published articles and a document titled "Corporate Manslaughter: an Update". Copies of these are available at www.ifap.asn.au.
