Safety gets a helping hand

Excellent safety practices have won five Perth Royal Show operators awards.

In their second year, the IGA Perth Royal Show Safety Awards have expanded from a single award into four different categories covering all aspects of the Show.

IFAP crisis and emergency management operations manager, Keith Harraway, says he hoped the awards continued to inspire commercial exhibitors and operators at the Show to uphold the most stringent of safety practices.

"This year we decided to expand the awards to cover every aspect of the Show," says Mr Harraway. "We had six judging criteria which included demonstrating safety innovation and complying with safety legislation."

Also the award sponsors, IFAP were responsible for emergency co-ordination and the provision of safety officers at the Royal Show.

The winners received a certificate and Mr Harraway says he has encouraged the winning exhibitors to display them proudly both during and after the Show.

The 2008 winners were:

Catering: Mobile Turkish Cuisine's Healthy and Tasty

Rides / Amusements: Amusement Services and Supplies for Bumper Boat Fun

Commercial exhibitors: Anaconda and Segals Oasis Outdoor Furniture

Show people: Scouts Australia (WA)

The IGA Perth Royal Show 2008 was on from September 27 to October 4.
